The article text discusses a survey of 80 business leaders, their professional challenges for 2017, and the CEO's perspective on business transformation. On the right side of the article, there are four promotional boxes: 'Contract Opportunities' with a link to 'For higher earnings & more variety go to top contract consultant', 'Keep informed' with a link to 'Register for our weekly Consultant's Newsletter', 'Free email course' with a link to 'Get career advice from our consulting expert', and 'CV reviewing service' with a link to 'Maximise your chances of success with our CV reviewing service'.
